

Jeffery Goad PharmD, MPH
Associate Professor of Clinical Pharmacy
Vice Chair, Titus Family Department of Clinical Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Economics & Policy
University of Southern California School of Pharmacy

Dr. Goad has a Doctor of Pharmacy degree and Masters of Public Health from USC. He established and currently directs the USC International Travel Health Services, which includes clinics and the USC Travel Medicine Assistance Program (USC Travel MAP). He has taught 5,000 pharmacists and student pharmacists to immunize.

Dr. Goad is a past Chair for the International Society of Travel Medicine Pharmacist Professional Group and a past President for the California Immunization Coalition and California Pharmacists Association.