

Patrick Liedtka MPA, MSW
Director, Public Policy
Merck (Washington, DC Office)

Mr. Liedtka is responsible for policy development and implementation related to vaccines, medication adherence, quality reporting and performance measurement programs, health information technology, and other federal health policy issues. Patrick joined Merck in 2005 from the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) within the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, where he managed the agency's relationships with hospitals, physicians, long term care facilities, and home health agencies in the mid-Atlantic Region. During his tenure with CMS, Patrick also inspected Medicaid home and community based services (HCBS) waiver programs for individuals with disabilities, and collaborated on quality improvement activities with State Medicaid Agencies.

Patrick holds MPA and MSW degrees from the University of North Carolina and an undergraduate degree in Business Administration from the University of Michigan.
