

Jennifer Tinney
Program Director
The Arizona Partnership for Immunizations

Ms. Tinney has been working in immunization education for 12 years. She specializes in provider education programs, vaccine financing, public health billing systems and partner development. Her background in Microbiology and Social Work are a quirky mix of tracking disease and human behavior. Jennifer was in 4th grade with a girl that wore a brace from polio which prompted a passion for immunizations and disease prevention.