

Douglas Trauner
Entrepreneur in Residence
VA Center for Innovation

Mr. Trauner founded Health Analytic Services, Inc. in 2007 and launched the care-coordination platform of TheCarrot.com in 2008 to enable healthcare providers to improve the management of outpatient care. He is a frequent speaker on the subject of patient engagement and privacy and previously co-founded PM Squared, Inc., a health care information company that was acquired by United Healthcare.

Mr. Trauner has an engineering degree from the University of California at San Diego.