

John Bulger DO, MBA
Chief Medical Officer
Geisinger Health Plan

Dr. John Bulger is responsible for working with Geisinger Health System and community providers to improve the quality of the system's medical care for the patients and members served. Before joining Geisinger Health Plan in 2015, Dr. Bulger held a number of positions at Geisinger Health System. Most recently, he served as the chief quality officer, a position he held since 2011.

Dr. Bulger serves on regional and national groups aimed at improving the quality of medical care. He was appointed by the Governor of Pennsylvania to serve on the Pennsylvania Patient Safety Authority and serves on its executive committee. He is a member of the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality's standing workgroup on evaluation of its Quality Indicators™ and the National Quality Forum's All-Cause Admissions and Readmissions Steering Committee. He also chairs the Society of Hospital Medicine's (SHM) healthcare quality and patient safety committee and has led SHM's participation in the American Board of Internal Medicine Foundation's Choosing Wisely Campaign®.

Dr. Bulger earned his BS from Juniata College in Huntingdon, Pennsylvania and his Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He also holds a MBA from Pennsylvania State University in State College, Pennsylvania.