

Pamela Carter-Smith MPA
Clinical Policies Strategist
Health of the Public and Science Division
American Academy of Family Physicians

Pamela Carter-Smith has over 18 years of experience in evidence-based clinical guideline development, immunization policy development and promotion, and implementing evidence-based interventions at the family physician practice level.

Ms. Carter-Smith is the project manager for the AAFP's Immunization Office Champions Project, and she is the assistant staff executive for the Subcommittee on Clinical Preventive Services for the Commission on Health of the Public and Science.

Ms. Carter-Smith earned a Bachelor's in Business Administration and a Bachelor's of Science in Health Administration. She also has a Master's in Public Administration from Park University. Ms. Carter-Smith has assisted in writing numerous articles and has presented on data to increase immunization rates across the lifespan.