

Amy Groom MPH
Immunization Program Manager
Indian Health Service

Amy Groom is a Public Health Advisor with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and she has served as the Immunization Program Manager for the Indian Health Service (IHS) since 2001. She serves as a subject matter expert for IHS and CDC on immunization issues that impact American Indian and Alaska Native (AI/AN) communities, and provides technical support to IHS to ensure AI/AN people have access to all recommended vaccines. She also advises IHS on immunization-related performance measures, and she has been the lead on the agency's healthcare personnel influenza, HPV, and adult vaccination initiatives.

Ms. Groom is the mother of 3 fully vaccinated children, and daughter to fully vaccinated parents.