

Ned Mossman MPH
Quality Improvement Advisor
OCHIN, Inc.

Ned Mossman joined OCHIN as a Quality Improvement Advisor in March of 2014. His role is focused on helping OCHIN staff and member organizations improve clinical quality and performance. He also leads innovation projects with a variety of clinical, financial, and operational aims

Before joining OCHIN, Mr. Mossman served for 7 years as Associate Director of the Oregon Osteoporosis Center, where he oversaw clinical and billing operations for an active set of clinical diagnostic testing laboratories. Prior to that he worked as a Research Associate, contributing to a variety of health research projects in pharmaceutical and diagnostic device testing, and as a Network Administrator.

Mr. Mossman received a Master of Public Health in Epidemiology and Biostatistics from Oregon Health & Science University in 2002.