

Eric Larson
IT Consultant
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Mr. Larson has been working to advance Immunization Information Systems since 2001. He worked for several years as an IIS implementer helping several states implement and maintain their IIS before transitioning to a contractor role for the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the American Immunization Registry Association (AIRA) working on clinical decision support and standards assessment initiatives.