

Earlean S Chambers
Assistant Director for Population Health Initiatives
AMGA

In her role at AMGA, Ms. Chambers provides clinical and quality improvement expertise for AMGA Foundation's quality initiatives that focus on integrating best practices into population health for medical groups and integrated health systems. As a registered nurse, she has over 25 years working in multiple healthcare settings with several years in quality leadership roles.

Ms. Chambers has undergraduate degrees in psychology and nursing and her master's degree in Nursing Administration.