

Tyler Duncan, PharmD
Pharmacist
Baggett Pharmacy

Tyler Duncan is a community pharmacist practicing at Baggett Pharmacy in Kingston, Tennessee. He received a Bachelors of Science degree in Biochemistry from Tennessee Tech University and went on to attend South College School of Pharmacy, earning his doctorate in 2020. Graduating during the height of the pandemic, Tyler works diligently to promote immunizations and implement new programs within the practice. He is dedicated to providing clinical services for his patients to help better the lives of those throughout the community.