

Matthew Malachowski, Pharm.D., MHA, BCPS

System AVP for Population Health and Ambulatory Care
Ochsner Health

Matthew Malachowski, Pharm.D., MHA, BCPS is the System AVP for Population Health and Ambulatory Care at Ochsner Health with headquarters in New Orleans, Louisiana. Dr. Malachowski serves as the Co-Chair for the Vaccine Subcommittee and the Ambulatory Subcommittee of the Ochsner Health Pharmacy and Therapeutics committee. He serves on the Performance and Operations committee of the Ochsner Health Network, the Ochsner Health Accountable Care Organization. Dr. Malachowski has oversight of the Ochsner Health Primary Care Pharmacy Team and collaborates with Information Services and the Primary Care Department to innovate solutions to tomorrow's patient care problems. He has responsibility for the Ambulatory Clinical Pharmacists imbedded in the outpatient physician clinics and enjoys developing Advanced Care teams. Dr. Malachowski is a member of the Pharmacy Times Editorial Advisory Board. Dr. Malachowski completed a Masters in Healthcare Administration at the University of Alabama in Birmingham in 2020, his residency at UAB Hospital in 2007 and graduated from pharmacy school at the University of Rhode Island in 2006.