

Heidi B. Miller, MD
Chief Medical Officer
Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services

Heidi B. Miller, MD is the Chief Medical Officer of the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services. She provides clinical and strategic input to the entire department, while fortifying public health policies and programming across the state. Unifying and optimizing the integration of public health, population health, and healthcare delivery efforts statewide have been her highest priorities.

Dr. Miller maintains her primary care practice at a Federally Qualified Health Center, Family Care Health Centers. She previously worked as the Medical Director for the St. Louis Integrated Health Network and the Regional Health Commission, as well as a consultant for the Missouri Primary Care Association and Missouri Medicaid. She trained at Yale University and Harvard Medical School, and she completed her residency in Internal Medicine at Harvard's Brigham and Women's Hospital.