

Sri Parajuli MPH, BSN, RN

Adult Immunization Coordinator

Pennsylvania Department of Health

Sri works for the Pennsylvania Department of Health as an Adult Immunization Program Coordinator. As a part of this role, Sri actively engages vaccine providers, community health nurses, immunization stakeholders, and policymakers in the strategic implementation of the CDC's Adult Immunization Framework. Prior to joining Pennsylvania Immunization Program in 2021, Sri worked in healthcare, local public health, and global health for several years. Sri earned her MPH from Virginia Tech with a focus on infectious disease epidemiology and community health education.