

Northe SaundersPresident of American Families for Vaccines and AFV Action Fund

Northe Saunders is the President of American Families for Vaccines and AFV Action Fund, the nation's first pro-vaccine political advocacy organization. AFV supports pro-vaccine legislation and lawmakers. They empower everyday people to advocate for strong public health laws, fight targeted disinformation, and support vaccine confidence and equity. Since 2020, AFV has helped establish and sustain fourteen Families for Vaccines chapters in states nationwide. Northe has 20 years of political leadership, grassroots organizing, and fundraising experience. He has worked on the local, state, and national levels for numerous political campaigns, candidates, and advocacy organizations.
