

Jim Sherner
Executive Director and Head of Policy, Advocacy, and Government Affairs for The Americas
CSL Seqirus

Jim Sherner is Executive Director and Head of Policy, Advocacy, and Government Affairs for The Americas at CSL Seqirus. In this role Jim leads a team of professionals who work to improve state/provincial and national policies that advance access and uptake of seasonal influenza vaccines, and support policies focused on improving pandemic preparedness infrastructure. Jim has worked in the vaccines and pharmaceutical sector for more than 20 years, spending most of his career with Wyeth/Pfizer where he served in multiple commercial and public affairs leadership roles focused on shaping the US policy environment supporting pediatric, adolescent, and adult vaccines. Jim holds a BA from the State University of New York at Geneseo and resides in the Philadelphia region.