

National Adult and Influenza Immunization Summit*

Improving Adult Immunizations and Sustaining Progress Accomplished During the Pandemic

Tuesday, Nov 1, 2022

Arrivals

Wednesday, Nov 2, 2022

8:00AM – 9:00AM	Networking Breakfast and Registration Sign-in Open
9:00AM – 10:30AM	Welcome CDC, DHHS/OIDP, and Immunize.org Keynote - The state of adult immunizations and adult vaccine coverage, CDC goals and initiatives to improve adult immunizations Dr. José Romero, Director, National Center for Immunization and Respiratory Diseases, CDC (confirmed) Keynote – DHHS commitment to adult immunizations, vaccine safety, innovation, equity, and partnerships Dr. Rachel Levine, U.S. Assistant Secretary for Health (confirmed) Communications Keynote – Overcoming inertia on non-COVID-19 vaccinations and hesitancy spillover from COVID-19 vaccines Young adults' perspective on vaccination
10:30-11:00AM	Networking Break
11:00AM-12:30PM	Session – Data, data, data...Improving data gathering and access to inform vaccination <ul style="list-style-type: none">• IIS provider enrollment, bidirectional exchange, and data availability for consumers: Celebrating progress and focusing on continued improvements for providers and the public• Panel Discussion - Quality measures for adult immunizations
12:30-1:45PM	Networking Lunch (provided)

1:45-2:45PM	Panel Discussion - Sustaining progress in vaccine equity: Strategies that led to lowering racial and ethnic disparities for COVID-19 and lessons learned for influenza and other vaccines
2:45-4:00PM	Breaking news and new adult vaccine recommendations and implementation strategies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Updates on monkeypox and vaccination strategies • Update on polio response and implications for the U.S. – • Adult vaccination ACIP updates for pneumococcal vaccines and zoster vaccine • CMS update on Inflation Reduction Act and implications for adult immunizations – Mary Beth Hance, CMS (confirmed)
4:00-4:15PM	Break Refreshments provided (available through next session)
4:15 – 5:30PM	Discussion groups breakout sessions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Promoting use of adult, maternal, and IIS use quality measures – ○ Promoting use of IIS and the standards for assessment and catch-up vaccination – challenges of coadministration – ○ How to sustain community partnerships and collaboration for improving overall vaccination ○ What do providers need to help better communicate vaccine information with patients?
6:00PM	Adult Vaccine Access Coalition (AVAC) sponsored networking reception
Thursday, Nov 3, 2022
8:00AM – 8:30AM	Networking coffee/tea
8:30 – 9:15AM	Discussion groups report outs
9:15 – 10:15AM	New vaccines and monoclonals in the pipeline – Phase 2 completed and currently in Phase 3
10:15 – 10:30AM	Break

10:30 – 11:45AM	Update on influenza, COVID-19 and hepatitis B vaccine <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Influenza surveillance update – US and international• COVID-19 surveillance and vaccine recommendations update• Influenza vaccine coverage• Plans for National Influenza Vaccination• Recommendations for hepatitis B vaccination and screening
11:50AM – 2:00PM	Awards Luncheon (All are welcome to attend)
2:15 – 3:15PM	Panel Discussion - Local programs with successful community efforts, and lessons learned
3:15 – 4:15PM	COVID-19 vaccines – celebrating our successes and looking to the future <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Overview of COVID-19 vaccination program implementation• Health and economic impact of the COVID-19 vaccination program• Sustaining and expanding vaccine providers and partnerships for COVID-19 and other vaccines
4:15-4:30PM	Feedback and Farewells; Departures