

Amy Walker

*Director, U.S. Policy & Advocacy
CSL Seqirus*

Amy Walker is the Director for U.S. Policy and Advocacy at CSL Seqirus. Amy works across CSL Seqirus' seasonal and pandemic influenza portfolios to build relationships with advocacy stakeholders and works to ensure patient access to flu vaccines is not hindered by policy, legislative, or regulatory barriers.

Prior to joining CSL Seqirus in 2021, Amy was a member of the Biotechnology Innovation Organization's (BIO) infectious disease policy team working on domestic and international policy issues related to vaccines, biodefense, and antimicrobial resistance. Before joining BIO in 2013, Amy was a legislative assistant with Drinker Biddle & Reath's health government relations team. Amy began her career on Capitol Hill.

Amy holds a Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree in Political Science from the University of Notre Dame and a Master of Science (MSc) degree in Public Health from the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine.
