

Agenda

National Adult and Influenza Immunization Summit 2021 Influenza Virtual Meeting: Maintaining Influenza Prevention During the Ongoing COVID-19 Pandemic

2:00 - 4:30 PM ET, May 20, 2021

2:00 - 2:05 PM - Introductions - LJ Tan (IAC), Ram Koppaka (CDC), and David Kim (OIDP, HHS)

2:05 - 2:45 PM - Plenary session - Expanding influenza vaccination among specialty medical providers and raising awareness of influenza's role in chronic disease – Amy Parker Fiebelkorn (CDC), Moderator

Dr. Helen Burstin, CEO, Council of Medical Specialty Societies (CMSS) (12-15 minutes)

Dr. Laurence Sperling, Executive Director, Million Hearts, CDC (12-15 minutes)

Q&A

2:45 - 3:10 PM - Update on influenza surveillance and vaccination coverage during 2020-21 Season

Alicia Budd, CDC – Overview of influenza surveillance in the U.S. and globally during 2020-21 and vaccine strains for 2021-22 season (10-12 minutes)

Dr. Jim Singleton, CDC - Influenza vaccine coverage for 2020-21 (10-12 minutes)

Q&A

3:10 - 3:40 PM - Manufacturers Panel discussion plus estimates of 2021-2022 influenza vaccine supply – L.J. Tan, moderator

U.S. Influenza Vaccine Manufacturers

Meaghan Pettengill, AstraZeneca

John Perkins, GSK

Chris Whitman, Sanofi

David Ross, Seqirus

3:40 - 4:20 PM - Communications planning for 2021-22.

Serese Marotta – Marotta Consulting, Inc., Moderator and opening comments (5-10 minutes)

Kathleen LaPorte, CDC – Communications plans for 2021-22 influenza vaccination season (15-20 minutes)

Discussion on likely communications challenges, including Q&A's from Summit members

4:20 - 4:30 PM – Wrap up - LJ Tan, Ram Koppaka, and David Kim