

Dates of meetings: October 24, November 5, November 6, 2014

Topic/Focus: Immunization Documentation and Immunization Information Systems (IIS)

- Three-part series in collaboration with NIIS Access Workgroup
- Format: Two information sessions followed by November 7 discussion via conference call

Speakers/Facilitators

October 24

- Amanda Bryant (Immunization Information Systems Branch, CDC)
- Alison Chi (American Immunization Registry Association)

November 5

- Jim Daniel (Office of the National Coordinator for Health for Health Information Technology, US Dept of Health and Human Services)
- Kim Martin (Association of State and Territorial Health Officials)

Meeting Summary:

October 24: Informational Session - Documenting Vaccinations in Immunization Information Systems

- What are immunization information systems? Examples of how systems or states or practices have used immunization information systems to improve adult immunization rates.

November 5: Informational Session – Immunization Registries and Meaningful Use

- The landscape of health IT as it relates to adult immunization
- Consumer access to IIS
- IIS Cross-Jurisdictional Data Exchange and Interoperability Pilot Projects
- Highlights from ASTHO's IIS Interstate Data Sharing Meeting

November 6: Discussion

Resources Shared:

Slide sets

- ASTHO IIS Interstate Data Sharing Meeting (Martin)
- Consumer Access to IIS and IIS Cross-jurisdictional Data Exchange and Interoperability Pilot Projects (Daniel)
- AIRA and Adult Immunization (Chi)
- IIS and Adult Immunization (Bryant)

Documents

- Brainstorming Ideas from Multiple Sessions – summary from 11/6/2014

Action Item(s)/Workgroup Product(s):

IIS brochure posted to www.izsubmitpartners.org website. This brochure, which was developed as a joint project of the Provider and Access Workgroups, represents the input of the Workgroup members, state health departments, and the American Immunization Registry Association.