

Erika Marroquin
Community Health Worker/ Promotora
El Sol Neighborhood Education Center

Erika Marroquin, is a Community Health Worker/ Promotora and has worked in the field for 8 years. Erika started as a youth mental health Community Health Worker providing health education in reducing the stigma of mental health. She has worked in several programs since conducting outreach, health education, health navigation, and advocating for the community and their needs. Now she is able to use her knowledge and skills from working alongside the community and lead trainings to maintain the essence and valuable work of CHW/Ps.